

Centre for Development Practice

Ambedkar University Delhi

24 February 2020

Advertisement for Research Associate Position

The Centre for Development Practice, Ambedkar University is looking for a suitable candidate for the post of Research Associate (positions -2) to work full time on the NTFP project funded by The Ford Foundation. The duration of the project would be for 8 months (April to November 2020). The applicant must have a Master's degree in Social Sciences or Ecology, preferably with a research degree or should have previous work experience of 2 years. The candidate should be willing to undertake field visits as and when required for the project. The candidate should have experience of conducting field studies and preparing reports.

Only shortlisted candidates will be called for an interview and no TA/DA will be given for attending the interview in Delhi.

Interested candidates may send their detailed resume to: cdp@aud.ac.in. The last date of application (email applications) is 10th March, 2020.

Prof. Anup Dhar

Director

Centre for Development Practice