Mag. presidential poll: filing of papers begin tomorrow

Deep Phukan

process to elect a new president was set in motion, with the party's general Election Authority chairman Madhusudan Prasad issuing an official notification on Thursday. While the process of nomination starts on Friday, voting will begin on October 17 and the counting of votes will take place on October 19.

Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashokrao Gehlot and Lok Sabha member Shashi Tharoor have emerged as the top runners in the presidential race.

The party last witnessed a contest for the top post in November 2000 when Congress chief Sonia Gandhi defeated Jitendra Prasad.

Except for a brief period between 1992 and 1998, when the top post of the Congress has been with the Gandhis since 1978.

However, with the Gandhis sitting out in the current election, the list of possible contenders could grow. Sources close to Lok Sabha member Manish Tewari said the senior leader was consulting with his supporters and well wishers before taking a final decision on contesting. Senior leader Digvijaya Singh, who is the national coordinator of the Bharat Jodo Yatra, is also being pitched as a contender.

The voting will be held on October 17 and the counting of votes will take place on October 19

But more than the number of contestants, Mr. Gehlot's candidature will present a challenge to the leadership. A win and elevation as the Congress chief would mean the party has to choose his successor as the Rajasthan's Chief Minister.

And with just about a year for the Assembly poll in Rajasthan, the Congress top leadership will have to make a careful choice. While former Deputy Chief Minister Sachin Pilot is being considered as a front runner for the post, it is well known that Mr. Gehlot is averse to him since he had rebelled against the Gehlot government in July 2020. Sources said Rajasthan Speaker C.P. Joshi or Cabinet Minister Shanti Kumar Dhariwal were also being talked as possible replacements of Mr. Gehlot.

RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat rashtra pita, says imam after Delhi meet

The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh chief Mohan Bhagwat on Thursday paid a visit to Umer Ahmed Ilyasi, chief imam of the All India Imam Organisation (AIIO), at the latter's residence in Delhi.

Mr. Bhagwat, who was accompanied by senior RSS functionaries Krishna Gopal, Ram Lal and Indresh Kumar, is said to have had a brief discussion with Mr. Ilyasi on issues relating to peace and harmony. Mr. Ilyasi said the meeting was "a family affair". "Bhagwatji is rashtra pita (father of the nation) and his visit to my home was an honour to me," he said.

A top RSS functionary told The Hindu that Mr. Bhagwat met the imam at his home in response to a long-standing invitation. "The RSS has been in continuous dialogue with Umer Ahmed Ilyasi. Even his father use to interact with former RSS chief K.S. Sudarshan," said the RSS functionary. He added that nothing more should be made of the visit. "Yes, he also met some madrasa students. It was a candid interaction," he added.

Sunil Ambekar, RSS publicity in-charge, described the meeting as part of the continuous samvad of the sangh with people from various sections of society. Even during his previous stay in Delhi, between August 21 and 24, Mr. Bhagwat met a delegation of Muslim intellectuals, including former Delhi Lieutenant-Governor Najeeb Jung, Mr. Ambekar noted.
